Writing

(10 points)

Look at the information in the box below and write an E-mail in 100-120 words.

You've ordered something in a clothes' shop online and you don't like it. Now you want to send it back.

Now write an E-mail to the shop and include the following points:

- What you've ordered.
- Why you don't like it.
- That you want another piece of clothing instead.

You can write down some notes before you write your E-mail. This can help you to organize your thoughts. The notes will not be corrected.

If you write too many words (over 120) or not enough words (under 100), your work will be penalized.
